

RAILROADS ROADS NEED HELP

Present Attitude Toward Rail Lines Wrong, Says Elliott.

Will Result in Dissolution or Bankruptcy if Continued.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—In an address "The Malady of the Railways" delivered last night before members of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which is meeting in New York, Elliott, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company, compared the present attitude toward the railways to the "blood letting" practiced in olden times. And unless there is a change in this attitude toward the railways, it will inevitably result in many cases in economic dissolution or bankruptcy, Mr. Elliott warned.

The speaker, in his address, pointed out the causes that have resulted in the present "malady" of the railways. The malady, he said, is not a disease, but a condition.

1. The public thoroughly realizes the fact that the railways are not different from other business concerns in their ability to increase constantly all kinds of expenses and at the same time reduce the price of the service.

2. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

3. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

4. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

5. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

6. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

7. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

ORGANIZE DEMURRAGE BUREAU.

Western Roads to Issue Joint Demurrage and Storage Tariff.

To insure the administration of demurrage and storage rules, with the instructions, explanations and interpretations, a national committee will be organized at 1572 North Dearborn building, Chicago, on or shortly before March 1. M. W. Rotchford, formerly manager of the Illinois and Iowa demurrage bureau at Peoria, Ill., has been appointed manager.

One of the first acts of the new bureau will be to issue a joint demurrage and storage tariff to take the place of the tariffs published by the individual lines. Demurrage and storage rules of all lines consequently will be made uniform and easily accessible to shippers in a convenient form. Complaints received from local lines or from the shipping public as to differences arising from the administration of the demurrage and storage tariff will be met by the manager and every endeavor will

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out. To stop falling hair, use one of the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Dandruff at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Advertisement.

EAT BIG MEALS! NO INDIGESTION OR BAD STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" makes weak stomachs strong and healthy at once.

Instantly stops sourness, gases, heartburn, acidity, dyspepsia.

There would not be a case of indigestion or dyspepsia here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Pape's Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sour, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, and you will readily understand why this promptly overcomes indigestion and removes such symptoms as heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, belching of gas and eructations of undigested food, water, acid, acidity, nausea, headache, dizziness and many other bad symptoms. Besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and free.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas or your food don't digest, and your meals don't seem to do you any good, a 50-cent case from your druggist will make life worth living. Absolute relief from stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and besides, one case is sufficient to rid a whole family of such troubles.

A Surly, harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.—Advertisement.

HERE AND THERE IN THE RAILWAY WORLD.

Forest S. Lyman, senior telegraph and telephone engineer of the interstate commerce commission, was in the city Tuesday on business. Mr. Lyman's headquarters are in Kansas City, Mo.

The loss and damage meeting of the coast line of the Santa Fe will probably be held in the Hotel Oakland, Oakland, Cal., February 15. Officials from various lines of the road plan to attend the meeting.

Announcement is made by the Rock Island that normal service on the Golden State route between El Paso, Tucson and Los Angeles—which has been interrupted by washouts—has now been resumed. Weather conditions in the territory are now ideal and no more delays on account of washouts are anticipated, it is said.

The main line of the Santa Fe was opened yesterday from San Bernardino to Los Angeles. It was the first time the line has been open since the two points since the washouts that followed heavy rains in California recently. During the high water period, the price of the article, they have to sell—transportation, and keep the plant adequate to the needs of the country.

2. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

3. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

4. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

5. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

6. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

7. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

8. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

9. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

10. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

11. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

12. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

13. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

14. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

15. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

16. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

17. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

18. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

19. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

20. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

21. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

22. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

23. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

24. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

25. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

26. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

27. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

28. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

29. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

30. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

31. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

32. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

33. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

34. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

35. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

36. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

37. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

38. The public realize that extreme and conflicting regulation is hurting them.

39. There is reasonable control and regulation of the great organizations of labor that are engaged in the work of various public utilities, including the railways, upon which the welfare of society depends.

40. Instead of passing additional laws, an account is taken of those now in existence to be followed by classification, amendment and repeal some of them.

41. It is realized that the railways are more and more national and less and less state in character and that state control and regulation must be subordinate to national control.

42. The nation has a right to expect of every man that he give the maximum of physical and mental effort in whatever position he occupies.

43. Men of commerce give more attention to these very important matters and use their influence with law makers and executives in an effort to bring about a more reasonable treatment of all business, including that of the railways.

A FRIEND OF MAN

St. Louis Priest Housed 6,248 Men During Year.

He Runs a Free Lodging Hotel for Down-and-Outs.

BURIES DEAD IN 'EXILES' REST

Ten Cent Beds, Nickel Meals Help Finance Institution.

Father Demsey Peace Angel in Big Teamster Strike.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 9.—Father Timothy Demsey, priest, social worker, strike-arbiter and friend of the poor and homeless, gave free lodging to 6,248 men at his hotel for working-men here during 1915, according to a report which has just been made public. In addition the hotel received $16,832.55 during the year for "ten cent beds" and "nickel meals."

More than 100,000 men since started to all parts of this country and others, have been guests of Father Demsey, for stopping at his hotel means being personal guest.

In nine years Father Demsey has given free lodging to 58,562 men and has furnished 100,613 free meals. Employment was obtained for 6,981 guests in those nine years, fifty-nine were sent to hospitals for free treatment and the bodies of twenty who died at the hotel were buried—and in the pauper's field, but in "The Exiles' Rest" of Calvary cemetery.

That in spite of all this charity, Father Demsey's hotel is almost self-supporting is indicated by the report which shows that of total receipts during 1915 of $21,585, more than $16,000 came from the nominal charges to guests. Private subscriptions help support the institution.

Day Nursery, Too. Recently Father Demsey opened a hotel for workingmen and a day nursery which are run on the same basis. Last year when a teamster's strike here was at its height and seemed hopeless of settlement, Father Demsey quietly worked among the strike leaders and among the team owners and then suddenly announced both sides were ready for peace. A few days later the strike was settled to the satisfaction of both sides.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

Forty-two new charitable cases were reported to the Confidential Exchange for January with Mayor.

Confidential Exchange Files Report for January with Mayor.

MY HOME TOWN GIRL

With a beautifully costumed cast supplemented by an artistically staged production, Hyams and McIntyre—who long ago won a place in the hearts of local theatergoers—returned last night for their second appearance in this city in "My Home Town Girl."

As a vehicle for the two stars, "My Home Town Girl" is not all that could be desired. It possesses neither the lines nor the music that have made other musical comedies a better proposition. But it does contain a number of elements that enables it to rank among the best musical comedies on the road this year.

The two principal "elements" are the two principal characters, Mr. Hyams and Miss McIntyre. John Hyams is a comedian. He probably never listed in his assets, a voice. He doesn't need one. Not that the performance of a comedian has been enhanced by a few true notes from Hyams, but despite the fact that he cannot warble a note, he is still able to hold his place with the best musical comedy stars in the country.

"My Home Town Girl" probably offers the most complete and satisfactory opportunity to appear at her best than is afforded any other member of the company. Filling a role that is devoid of any of the shading that sometimes dims the light of a musical comedy, she added a touch of sweetness to the play that made it thoroughly refreshing.

Excellent support and a well trained chorus added materially to the effectiveness of the two stars. Besides Mr. Hyams and Miss McIntyre, the most important roles were filled by Ada May, Luke Almond, Claude East, Doris Vernon, Dorothy Reich, Roy Parviance, Charles Horne and Charles Holly.

The plot of the story is rather threadbare. On the eve of his wedding, a man faces exposure for a wild night of a year before. He uses the name of his friend—Tony—(John Hyams), and thereby dragged him into the scandal. Relatives from Michigan came to New York to attend the wedding. Among them is Miss McIntyre. One by one the visitors are involved in the scandal that threatened to leave Tony—out of "without a cent." And then in a most unusual manner—a manner possible only in a musical comedy—the situation is cleared up and Tony turns his steps toward Michigan with his "home town girl."

A. L. G.

LOYAL LEGION MEETS

Majority of Members Declared to Be in Favor of Preparedness.

A majority of members of the Order of the Loyal Legion Commandery of Kansas voted preparedness, according to a statement made this morning by Capt. J. T. Taylor, of Leavenworth, recorder of the Legion. Preparedness was about the only subject discussed by members of the Legion at a meeting held last evening at the Mills Tea room.

"When we say we favor preparedness," said Captain Taylor, "it doesn't mean that we want a continental army but we would place that matter entirely in the hands of military men. We would know, if anyone does, the size of the army and may need by this country for proper defense."

Continuing Captain Taylor declared that thousands of young men lost their lives in the Civil war simply because of their ignorance of the war. The young men of the order, sons of officers in the Union army, outnumber the officers for the first time and it is probable that from now on the younger generation will be in the majority, although there is a number of officers in Kansas who have not made application for membership. Major W. H. Mapes of Emporia, commander, left Topeka this morning, and Captain Taylor will leave for Emporia, Md., thirty members of the Legion attended the meeting last evening.

THEY REFUSE TO EAT

At periods in most children's lives they fail to relish their meals and refuse to eat even the delicacies prepared to tempt their appetites. They lack ambition, and growth seems impeded which causes anxiety and worry.

To compel them to eat is a grave mistake, because nutrition is impaired. Healthful exercise in fresh air and sunshine is important, but equally important is a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion three times a day to feed the tissues and furnish food-energy to improve their blood, aid nutrition and sharpen their appetites.

The highly concentrated medicinal food in Scott's Emulsion supplies the very elements children need to build up their strength. They relish Scott's—it is free from alcohol.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N.J. 15-34

Advertisement.

First Degree Murder

Buffalo Grand Jury Indicts Son for Slaying of Mrs. Teiper.

Buffalo, Feb. 9.—An indictment charging John Edward Teiper with murder in the first degree was returned by the Erie county grand jury today. Teiper is charged with slaying his mother, Mrs. Agnes Teiper, who with his brother, Frederick Teiper, was killed on the Orchard Park highway Sunday night, January 30.

For Slaying Attorney.

Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 9.—The murder case of John Stokes, charged with killing Donald Shill, Dallas attorney, is set for trial February 24. The killing occurred in November, 1914.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

AMID REGAL POMP

Elaborate Ceremony Installs Chicago's New Archbishop.

Most Rev. Geo. W. Mundelein Is Quigley's Successor.

800 CLERGYMEN KISS RING

Kneeling, He Takes Oath of Obedience to Holy See.

Mons. Bonzano Cloaks Him With Official Pallium.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—The Most Rev. George W. Mundelein, D. D., was installed as the Roman Catholic archbishop of Chicago and metropolitan of the province of Illinois here today with elaborate ceremonies in Holy Name cathedral. He is the third holder of the office, his predecessors having been Patrick A. Feehan, who died late in 1902, and James E. Quigley, whose death occurred late last summer.

The Most Rev. John Bonzano, delegate from the Vatican, to Washington officiated at the services, aided by the Rt. Rev. Charles E. McDonnell, bishop of Brooklyn, by whom Archbishop Mundelein was ordained into the priesthood, and scores of other clergymen.

Archbishop Mundelein arrived in Chicago yesterday from Brooklyn, escorted from that city by a delegation of 70 officials of the Chicago diocese on a special train.

This morning church societies in full regalia escorted him from his residence to the cathedral.

800 Clergymen in Line.

At the door of the cathedral Archbishop Mundelein was met by Rt. Rev. M. J. Fitzsimmons, who has been administrator of the archdiocese since Archbishop Quigley's death. Followed by bishops from dioceses throughout the country—about fifty in all—and more than 800 Chicago clergymen, Father Mundelein was escorted to the sanctuary with officers of the pontifical mass. Kneeling before the altar the new archbishop heard prayers from Mons. Fitzsimmons, and ascending to the altar gave his blessing and retired to the throne.

Addresses by the apostolic delegate, Father Fitzsimmons and by John A. Lynch, one of the lay leaders of the church in Chicago, were followed by

Clears Complexion

Don't worry about skin troubles. You can have a clear, clean complexion by using a little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or extra large bottle at $1.00.

Zemo easily removes all traces of pimples, black heads, eczema, and dandruff, and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is neither watery, sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

Zemo, Cleveland.—Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.